

UK-based proofreader working with fiction and non-fiction texts

I am a UK-based proofreader and native English-speaker, and I have been freelance since 2015. In that time I've worked with publishers, authors, students and academics. I am fully trained and my skills have been rigorously assessed.

Subject specialisms

I proofread fiction and non-fiction texts. I have been fortunate to work on projects in a wide variety of fields and genres.

My non-fiction specialisms are as follows:

- International relations and conflict law
- European integration
- British politics
- Political theory and philosophy
- Ancient philosophy and history
- General history
- Memoirs and autobiographies

My recent fiction projects include books in the following genres:

- Children's fantasy fiction
- Children's science fiction
- Historical fiction
- Political fiction
- Short story collections

I will always put your needs first

I understand the demands of working in professional and academic environments and the desire to present your writing at its best. I offer friendly and reliable support, a proven knowledge of the English language and publishing standards, and a prompt and thorough service.
